

For Immediate Release
February 20, 2014

UPDATE: Veterans Can Learn More About Benefits at Resource Fair

COLUMBUS – Veterans living in the area surrounding Medina can learn more about the benefits they earned during their military service as well as what is available in their local community to support them by attending a Veterans Resource Fair planned for Monday, February 24, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Medina Armory.

More than 65 exhibitors will be on hand to meet and talk to veterans about health, education and other benefits available from the federal government and the state, as well as state and local wellness and other services offered to veterans. A number of employers will provide information about opportunities for veterans in their companies.

Organizations exhibiting at the event include the (VA) Healthcare System of Ohio, VA Vet Centers, the Ohio Veterans Bonus, Ohio National Guard, the University of Akron, Tri-C Community College, the Cleveland Clinic, Insuring Ohio Futures, Panther Expedite, Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Veterans Services, Medina County Workforce Development, and local health care providers.

Break-out sessions by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services and Insuring Ohio Futures will highlight job-seeking strategies and the opportunities for employment available in Ohio's insurance industry.

This free event is sponsored jointly by the Ohio Department of Veterans Services, the Ohio Adjutant General, and the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services.

-30-

Media needing more information, contact - Mike McKinney at 614-728-0235 or Michael.mckinney@dvs.ohio.gov