BACKGROUND

What is CAMVETS?

Challenge America: Makers For Veterans (CAMVETS) is a unique program that's all about finding and actually making creative solutions to specific challenges that veterans are facing. We pair veteran participants (or Challenge Knowers) with a team of experts (or Solution Makers) who all come together for a series of events to create a solution that directly addresses the specific challenge of their veteran team member.

Our upcoming CAMVETS program will take place in Cleveland, Ohio in Spring, 2019. We are looking for Challenge Knower applicants from the Cleveland area.

APPLY TODAY!

If you meet these eligibility guidelines, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity by filling out the application form* below. The Application Deadline is December 5, 2018. We will select up to six veteran Challenge Knowers for the Spring 2019 program.

There is no cost to apply or participate in the program.

If selected, you will:

- get to work with a team of experts working on a solution tailored to your specific need
- meet people in your community from a multitude of disciplines and backgrounds
- help to raise awareness and find solutions for countless other veterans facing similar challenges
- participate in a goal-setting workshop to identify and create a plan to pursue your personal goals
