

Ohio Women Veterans Advisory Committee Roles and Responsibilities

Board Member

- Provide advice, counsel and input to the ODVS Director on issues, opportunities and programs impacting Ohio women veterans
- Serve as a voting member of the board
- Prepare for, attend and participate in committee meetings; 60% meeting attendance required
- Fulfill the mission of the Ohio Women Veterans Advisory Committee in alignment with committee rules
- Function as an advocate and ambassador for Ohio women veterans
- Leverage connections, networks and resources to advance the committee's mission
- Serve a two-year term on the committee
- Provide advice and recommendations to the ODVS Women Veterans Coordinator to elevate the image and advance opportunities for Ohio women veterans
- Serve as chair or co-chair of a committee for the biennial conference; recruit volunteers and committee members to support the biennial conference
- Serve as a public representative of the committee

Emeritus Member

- Provide advice, counsel and input to the ODVS Director and the board on issues, opportunities and programs impacting Ohio women veterans
- Serve as a non-voting member of the committee
- Prepare for, attend and participate in committee meetings; 60% meeting attendance required
- Fulfill the mission of the Ohio Women Veterans Advisory Committee in alignment with committee rules
- Function as an advocate and ambassador for Ohio women veterans
- Leverage connections, networks and resources to advance the committee's mission
- Serve a two-year term on the committee
- Serve on the biennial conference advisory board; recruit volunteers and committee members to support the biennial conference
- Mentor new members of the committee
- Serve as a public representative of the committee

Committee Member

- Provide advice, counsel and input to the board on issues, opportunities and programs impacting Ohio women veterans
- Serve as a non-voting member of the committee
- Prepare for, attend and participate in committee meetings; 60% meeting attendance required
- Fulfill the mission of the Ohio Women Veterans Advisory Committee in alignment with committee rules
- Function as an advocate and ambassador for Ohio women veterans
- Leverage connections, networks and resources to advance the committee's mission
- Serve a two-year term on the committee
- Serve on a committee for the biennial conference; recruit volunteers and committee members to support the biennial conference
- Serve as a public representative of the committee